Today is a very special day for our parish with Father Joshua Nelson celebrating his first Mass after his ordination yesterday. Everyone is welcome to join us for brunch following the service to continue our celebration of the happy occasion for both Joshua and our parish.

Welcome to Fr. Joshua's friends and family who are here to celebrate his ordination and first Mass as priest.

Altar flowers today are given to the greater glory of God and in Thanksgiving for Fr. Joshua Nelson's ordination and new ministry with us and given by St. David's parish family.

Michael Marcks will depart for Honduras on June 29 and return on July 11. Please keep Michael and all the Campaneros en Cristo in your prayers while he is on this mission trip representing our diocese and parish. Donations can still be made today towards this trip.

In order to be in compliance with church canons, the vestry has voted that any cash plate offerings given on the second Sunday of each month will be given to the clergy discretionary fund. This will begin in July. Parishioners can also give to the discretionary fund at any other time by designating "discretionary fund" in the memo line.

Thank You ... to JoAnn Vance for her work in the parish office ... to Tom Allen for mowing the lawn during the month of June ... to all who are attending Evening Prayer ... to all who have contributed to Michael Marcks mission trip to Honduras ... to Nate Jacka for installing the Episcopal Church sign ... to all who attended Fr. Joshua's ordination on Saturday and those who prepared food for today's brunch celebrating his ordination and first Mass ...

Today during Mass we will sing the hymn composed by Father Joshua for our parish to commemorate David of Wales our patron saint.
